

ASHINAGA SUMMER CAMP VOLUNTEER

Volunteer and Be a Part of the ASHINAGA Summer Experience!

Ashinaga's summer camps (Tsudoi/つどい) run every year and are designed for orphaned students from all-over Japan. We are currently recruiting international volunteers studying in Japan to be part of our global program. For the past four years, we have globalized our summer camps by inviting interns from abroad to improve our students global perspective and create a more diversified gathering.

ASHINAGA SUMMER CAMP VOLUNTEER

What is "TSUDOI" ?

Interested in improving your Japanese? Passionate about international exchange? Looking to have a meaningful summer vacation? Ashinaga is recruiting international students in Japan as summer camp volunteers.

Ashinaga summer camps are designed for Japanese students who have lost one or both parents. Volunteers will attend a camp, interact with students and expose students to different walks of life around the globe.

The aim of the camps is to give students a sense of community and to create a social support network in which students from similar backgrounds encourage and up lift one another. Join our community and make a difference in a student's life!
