6. Long-Term Course Program

We have adopted a Long-Term Course Program for students who have difficulty completing the course in the normal 2 years, because of job-holding, housework, nursing care and so on. Though the Master’s Program normally lasts 2 years, it can be extended to 4 years. Those who wish to acquire the Master’s Degree by extending the normal 2-year completion limit can be admitted as Long-Term Course Students. Note that the maximum period of residency for the Master’s Program is 4 years. Those who wish to do so must follow instructions in the notification of acceptance, which will be delivered by mail after the announcement of acceptance, and submit prescribed documents at the time when they go through all entrance procedures.

Coursework for students who are deemed eligible for Long-Term Course Program is provided in accordance with the curricula and time schedule for regular students.

The annual tuition fee for long-term course students is calculated as follows: The total amount of tuition fees for the standard term (2-year) of study is divided by the extended term (4-year) of study. For details, please contact the Office of Academic Affairs of the GSICS.

7. Others

- (1) Please note that incomplete applications will not be accepted. After receipt of the application documents, no correction is permitted, and the application fees are not refundable.
- (2) Disclosure of the examination results is available at the request of applicants during the fiscal year of the examination.
- (3) We shall give proper attention to physically handicapped applicants. Please contact the Office of Academic Affairs of our school at the earliest possible time.
