

Notes on the Presentation of the Research Title, the Master's Thesis Plan, the Master's Thesis, and the Interim Presentation of Doctoral Thesis

The presentation of the Research Title and others will be held as follows. Please read the notes below carefully.

1. Dates, Venue, etc.

1) The schedule and the venue of the presentations are as follows:

Date	Department(Course)	Time Schedule	Venue
January 22(Thu.) and January 23(Fri.)	Department of European and American Studies/ Department of Asian and African Studies/ Department of Contemporary Japanese Media and Gender Studies	January 23(Fri.) 9:00 to 14:20	Lecture Room 302
	Department of International Politics and Economy/Department of International Environment and Resources Policy/ Department of Multiculturalism	January 22(Thu.) 9:00 to 14:00	Lecture Room 302
	Department of Theoretical Linguistics/Department of Applied Linguistics/ International Graduate Program in Language Sciences	January 22(Thu.) 10:00 to 15:05 and January 23(Fri.) 10:00 to 16:30	Multimedia Education and Research Complex M203

2) Notes for the presentations

- A projector and a screen are placed in each classroom. Presenters who wish to use PowerPoint, etc. in their in-person presentations should bring their laptop computers to the venue on the day. If you have no choice but to borrow a laptop computer from the Academic Affairs Office, please contact them no less than a day before the presentation.
- At the start of each session, a faculty member will announce the start of the session. The chairperson of the first presentation will start the session and proceed to the next presentation.
- Please note that your presentation may start earlier than scheduled depending on the progress of the session.

2. Presentation Time

- Presentations of the Research Title, the Master's Thesis Plan, and the Master's Thesis
Presentation: 10 minutes/ Q&A session: 5 minutes

- Presentation of the Interim Presentation of Doctoral thesis
Presentation: 25 minutes/ Q&A session: 15 minutes

3. Presentation Materials

The submitted materials will be posted on the graduate school's website, so please print them out if necessary.

4. Connection Test for Presenters

If you have any concerns about using the projector, the Academic Affairs Office help you to connect your laptop computer to the projector before your presentation. Those who wish to test the connection should bring their laptop computers to the classroom at the designated day and time below.

Date	Department(Course)	Time Schedule	Place
January 20(Tue.)	Department of European and American Studies/ Department of Asian and African Studies/ Department of Contemporary Japanese Media and Gender Studies	14:00 ~ 15:00	Lecture Room 302
	Department of International Politics and Economy/Department of International Environment and Resources Policy/Department of Multiculturalism
	Department of Theoretical Linguistics/Department of Applied Linguistics/International Graduate Program in Language Sciences	10:00 ~ 11:00	Multimedia Education and Research Complex M203

January 15, 2026
Dean of GSICS, Tohoku University